HELLO FRIENDS

I'm Madison

Hi, I'm Madison, and photography has been my passion for over a decade. The face behind Margaret Media, My journey began in high school, where I first discovered the magic of capturing authentic moments and preserving them forever. Since then, I've been deeply committed to documenting life's most meaningful experiences, evolving my craft with every love story and landscape I've photographed.

Growing up in Alberta surrounded by ranchlands, rivers, and the Rockies, I learned to see beauty in every detail. Now based on North Vancouver Island, I bring that same appreciation for the natural world to every wedding and elopement I shoot. I'm drawn to the raw, unscripted emotions that make each story unique—the laughter, the happy tears, and the quiet moments in between

Before or After Staged Photos

Sometimes the weather or time constraints on your wedding day can make it challenging to get all the formal shots you envisioned. A staged session allows us to capture your couple portraits at another location—whether it's the golden light of your favourite beach, a serene forest, or a mountain backdrop—without the pressure of the wedding schedule. This session ensures your formal photos are relaxed, unhurried, and exactly what you've been dreaming of.
